Invitation to Mr. K. S. Lambourn, Rao Bahadur Rao, acting Chief Justice & Mr. N. S. Subba Rao, acting Vice Chancellor of Travancore to the Birthday Durbar

WD 03607—GPB—22,500—2-8-35

There are two points raised in the Huzur Secretary's letter with reference to Messrs. K.Shankaranarayana Rao, acting Chief Justice and N.S.Subba Rao acting Vice-Chancellor:-

(i) whether they may be invited;
and (ii) assigned rank in the Birthday Durbar, on the basis of their Offg. appointments (which are included in the special class).

7e A

2. For Birthday, only officers of the special class (in which Chief Justice and Vice-Chancellor are included) are entitled to be invited as a matter of course. While officers of class I (in which Puisne Judges and D.P.I. are included) are entitled to be invited only if they are required to attend the R.A. and the invitation does not involve their proceeding to Mysore more than one day before the R.A. sittings.

7e-M

3. Under Note (c) to the Precedence List officers holding "acting" appointments will take rank in the class wherein the acting appointment is included.

The Birthday falls this year on 31.5.36, Justice Reilly's leave begins only on 2.6.36 and till then he will merely be enjoying the vacation. Dr. Metcalfe's leave ended on 31.3.36 and thereafter he will only be on vacation. So both these officers are technically on duty at the time of the Birthday and Messrs. Shamkaranarayana Rao and N.S.Subba Rao will only be doing the work of officers outside the station but on duty and not "acting" in the higher appointments. So it is for orders if they may be treated as if they are "acting" for the purpose of Palace invitation.

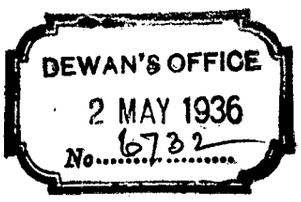
How can this be done?

4. As regards inviting them to the Palace Durbars, even Puisne Judges were invited for Birthday in 1934. Mr. N.S.Subba Rao is an officer who has anyhow to go to Mysore in connection with the R.A. sittings.

(Class 'A')

Mr. N.S. Subba Rao can only rank as D.P.J. - if he acts as such.



5. The question of Precedence is one for special orders in the circumstances stated.
